

Gifted Awareness Week 2019 - 17th to 23rd March
BELONGING

“Gifted? Talented? Highly able? High-potential learners? Why do we even need a label?”

Students who are capable of learning at a greater pace, depth and complexity than their same-age peers are often excluded from conversations about inclusive practices in educational contexts. This session will explain the terminology and the importance of understanding, valuing and providing for these students. Inclusive practice is a way for all students to feel a sense of belonging and community in the classroom, in order for them to learn and grow. Importantly, how can we ensure that inclusive practices stretch to include the gifted and talented students?

Lesley Henderson will present this special Gifted Awareness Week 2019 session for teachers and parents at:

St Pius X School, 8 Windsor Grove, Windsor Gardens
Thursday 21st March 2019 from 4-5pm.

We invite you to join us after the presentation for coffee with Lesley and members of the GTCASA committee.

Tickets are $25. Book online at; <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/gifted-awareness-week-2019-gifted-talented-why-do-we-even-need-a-label-tickets-56461037483>

Staff at all CESA schools can book a free ticket by entering the code: GAW19CESA

Proudly presented by:

Lesley Henderson is a Lecturer in Education at Flinders University, where she coordinates the Gifted Education specialisation. She is the president of the Australian Association for the Education of the Gifted and Talented (AAEGT), and a past president of GTCASA. Lesley has presented at local, national and international conferences and will complete her doctorate this year on leadership for professional learning about gifted education.

This flyer was created by Isaac Horgan. Isaac is a year 6 student at St Francis School, Lockleys who is accelerating to year 10 mathematics and year 10 digital publishing at Nazareth College in 2019.